

Mowing of ALL Seven Perimeters of the Addition.

The seasonal mowing by our contractor begins late March and continues throughout the growing season, which actually runs into November.

Your membership dues pay for a local Contractor to mow and maintain over $5,000 in mowing expenses every year.

BEAUTIFICATION Projects for Country Aire

All entrances have professional signage with our CAE logo. There has been extraordinary effort and hours put in to landscape and plant many of these entrances.

Your membership dues pay for all landscaping plants, supplies, water and maintenance for the beautification of our entrances. Volunteers do all the work needed.

Spring and Fall Neighborhood Garage Sale

CAHOA sponsors 2 yearly Garage Sales!

This is a great way to pass on some of your treasures or unwanted items and make some extra money.

Your membership money allows the CAHOA Board to put ads in the paper, notify the media and create signs and banners around the perimeters of the addition to advertise these events.

Annual Easter Egg Hunt in the Park

The Easter Egg Hunt is normally held on the Saturday before Easter in the Country Aire Park. All kids 12 and under are invited to attend.

Your membership money pays for the Easter Eggs, gifts & prizes.

Summer Yard of Week

Each year, a group of volunteers to judge the beautiful lawns of Country Aire Estates and place a sign in the yard of the Winner each week, from May through September.

Your membership dues pay for the Contest Winner Signs that are purchased for this event.

The BREEZE Newsletter!

Every Quarter (at the Season Change), your CAHOA Board teams with residents and local vendors to create an 8-page Newsletter with current Broken Arrow happenings and Country Aire Events of interest. We have an outstanding Newsletter!

Your membership dues pays for the layout, editing and printing 1,000 copies of the Newsletter. Distributed by Volunteers. Advertising covers about 1/2 of the cost.

Santa in the Park AND Christmas Lighting Contest

Every year, Santa visits in the Country Aire Park to hear the wish lists and take photos with all the kids that come to visit.

A committee of volunteers decide on the Christmas Lighting Winners each week during the Holidays and put the signs up in winning yards.

Your membership dues pay for hiring Santa and supplying cookies and hot chocolate for the children and signs for the Lighting Contest Winners.

The Country Aire Board is all VOLUNTARY. Every month, these Country Aire Residents devote time and their best efforts to creating and maintaining outstanding and safe living conditions for it's residents. There are countless other residents that have volunteered to deliver Newsletters, landscape, beautify and cleanup all our entrances and organize the Holiday Events for Country Aire children. For a mere $25 a year, all these activities can continue to be funded with 50% resident participation, think what we could do with 75% or 100%! Please plan to help keep these projects going by sending in the coupon on this page. Thank you!

The CAHOA Website!

www.cahoa.org

The Website is updated monthly with current information about the Board Meetings, Events in the Neighborhood and the Community, Board Members Contact Info, a Blog, and all BREEZE Newsletters - Current and Archived, in PDF Format, and did we mention in Full Color?

Your membership dues pay for a Country Aire resident's nominal fees to create and maintain the website.
