Reaches 900+ Residents in Country Air Estates twice a year!

FROM THE PREZ

by Bobby Liniger

Wow summer is flying by. I am really struggling with school starting so soon. At the time of this writing it is only 1 month away, and I don't feel like I have spent much time with my family. Hopefully you have had a great time this summer.

Summer is a busy time of year for the home owners association. We have many volunteers to keep the entrances looking nice, but could always use more. We had our summer social June 10th, and yard of week started Memorial Day and continues until Labor Day. The board is made up of volunteers, so if you have a problem please be respectful, we are just trying to help. If you would like to see something changed please come to a board meeting to discuss it. We meet on the odd months on the third Thursday in the Lutheran Church Library starting at 7 pm.

Please help out, and get involved, we have many residents that already do, and I am very grateful for them. We want to make this neighborhood better, and are working towards that, so help out however you can.

Country Aire Estates on Nextdoor.com

by Bobby Liniger

Nextdoor has been mentioned several times in the past breeze issues, so this article will be short. Join nextdoor.com for a great way to talk with other neighbors. It is used to report lost or found dogs/cats, possible suspicious activity, get recommendations on a contractor, or to get rid of something you don't want anymore. But it is not for advertising your business or political affiliation. Nextdoor is also rarely used by the police to make announcements, but they can't see your postings, just replies to their post. Hope you can join.

I began to really live life when I began to look at every situation and think about how I could be of service in that situation. I learned that I shouldn't be pushy about helping, but just willing. Often I could give a helping hand—or perhaps a loving smile or a word of cheer. I learned it is through giving that we receive the worthwhile things of life. — Peace Pilgrim

Yard of the Week

It is summertime, so you may notice Country Aire Yard of the Week signs appearing in the beautiful laws of a few of the homes in Country Aire Estates.

How does one receive this title and bragging rights? Well, our neighborhood is divided into 4 areas, and we have 4 volunteer judges that go out every weekend to find the yard in their area worthy of the sign. We have some lovely yards in this neighborhood, so judging can be tough! The summertime yard judging is from Memorial Day Weekend to Labor Day Weekend.

Country Aire HOA also has a Yard of the Week during Christmas time, in which your yard is judged, again by 4 area volunteers, on the lights and/or decorations, not the maintenance and landscaping. This contest begins Thanksgiving Weekend and runs to New Year's Day.

I truly appreciate the volunteers that donate their time each weekend to brighten someone's day by recognizing the homeowner's hard work with the presentation of the Yard of the Week sign.

If you would like to volunteer, please contact the CAHOA Board and/or Carolyn Mathieson.

Good Luck to all those competing for the sign and a big THANK YOU to the volunteers!

Beautification Committee

First off I want to say thank you so much to the volunteers we have to help our neighborhood look great. Maintaining the entrances is a tough job, we have seven entrances, and we have people working hard to keep them beautiful. This year we had a couple volunteers needing to step down, so we hired a company to help out with weeding, trimming and adding mulch to the beds. There have been a few problems with the service, but we are working through it. So thanks to those who have brought it to my attention. We could use more help if you are interested.

Keeping the neighborhood looking good is a big task, and not just the entrances, but we have a some great volunteers, and probably many I don't know about. I commonly see some pick up trash in our neighborhood on their morning walk. So hopefully you are reading this, Thank You. Every resident plays a part, and keeping your area nice is appreciated.

Currently we are looking for a chairman for the beautification committee. We have volunteers that do their thing, but I don't feel they are well supported and want to improve that. The chairman's role would mainly be communication. The board would like to know what all our volunteers do, know them better, and help them. We also need volunteers to help out with the Fir and Kenosha entrance, the previous volunteers are unable to continue maintaining it as previously mentioned. They have served for many, many years wonderfully, so thanks.

If you are interested or just want more information, please contact Bobby Liniger.

SUMMER SOCIAL REVIEW

by Bobby Liniger

It was a beautiful day for the summer social, unfortunately attendance was very low. We are looking to address the issue by advertising the event better for 2018, but some problems we are unable to address, such as Blue Bell Taste of Summer being at the same time. The board wants to say thanks to those that were able to come out and play, and we also want to apologize to those that didn't even know about it. The event was listed in the Spring issue of the Breeze, on Nextdoor.com and on our website cahoa.org. We are looking into mailing out flyers before the event as a reminder.

Another way we are trying to improve the event is by renaming it. Summer Festival, Summer Block Party, or something similar. Personally I like the alliteration of Summer Social, but it is more than a social gathering and we want to make that clear by changing the name.

The board is interested in any suggestions, and of course anyone interested in volunteering. You can contact us through our website, or by mail (some even put a note on their dues). We are also on Nextdoor, and hope to hear from you. Have a great fall, hope to see you at the Summer Festival next year.

Fall Gardening Tips for Oklahoma Gardeners

Hold on to your Jalapenos!!!!!!

Fall is the ideal time to grow and "keep" vegetables in the garden. For you visual types we have the handy, dandy OSU Fall Gardening Fact Sheet: No. 6009 . sow carrots, beans, cucumbers, summer squash, beets, Irish potatoes, lettuce, cole crop transplants, mustard, radishes, rutabagas, spinach, Swiss chard and turnips. Here are a few thoughts on the process. Clean up existing plants, and mulch the soil to "pre-cool" it. In abut ten days, pull the mulch away and start sowing and planting.

Let's start with those peppers.

With the arrival of cooler temperatures, pepper pollen will remain viable for longer periods. This enables more thorough floral fertilization and subsequently larger pepper pods. Clip back any little malformed peppers, prune the plants back by one third, give them a shot of nitrogen fertilizer and in about five weeks start picking.

Some of my best tomatoes have come on in the fall.

Local garden centers have been offering fresh tomato transplants for fall gardening. Ideally, these are planted in mid- July. But, if we get them in by late August we can squeeze by with a little help from the petrochemical industry. As night temperatures dip below 65 degrees, consider a little protection for the plants using plastic draped over large tomato cages. Just a little covering (not in intimate contact with the plant) will hold in ground heat at night, aiding fruit set.

September is garlic planting time.

Set cloves 2 inches deep and 4 inches apart. As foliage emerges, provide plenty of water, mulch (to fight winter weeds) and nitrogen fertilizer. We use bunny poop, because we have a steady supply from our daughter's pet rabbit. It's pelletized and slow release. Harvest next June when tops begin to die down.

Broccoli, Brussels Sprouts, and Cabbage

All thrive in cool, moist weather conditions. Brussels sprouts can be grown to maturity, then "stored" in the garden. Try some of the lovely red cabbages. Keep the B.t. handy. Bacillus thuringiensis dust or liquid is the smart way to keep cabbage looper and diamondback moth caterpillars under control. Their populations are well-established by fall and can decimate these plants.

Kohlrabi and Turnips

In early September we can direct seed kohlrabi and turnips. Both green and purple kohlrabi varieties will grow very well. Both turnips and kohlrabi will be best if harvested when they are tennis ball size or smaller. "Tokyo Market", a.k.a. 'White Tokyo' or 'Tokyo Cross' is a delicious, creamy white turnip that's ideal for adding to fall salads.

Speaking of salads.

We can sow lettuce in mid-September, harvesting into late fall. But how abut trying kale for salads served with a warmed dressing? One of the better salad greens that Master Gardeners, Sherry and Rick Stiller introduced to me is mizuna. It's a japanese green with a delicate mild mustard taste. Mache, also called corn salad, is one of my favorite mild fall greens.
